

Smart Money

www.bananamoments.com

Smart Money is a fundraiser designed for educator and parent communities who are interested in learning how to achieve peace of mind in this crazy cyber-powered network culture, promote a more productive learning experience for children, and raise money to help supplement funding gaps.

Parents who purchase a subscription to Banana Moments: Family Business Quarterly for $10, earn $5 for their child's school.

To sign up is easy as 1-2-3

1. Go to <http://www.bananamoments.com> and click on the Smart Money icon.
2. Purchase your subscription through the paypal button (you can use credit cards or paypal account). (If you would prefer to write a check, email Joanna at jullien@surewest.net)
3. Respond to Banana Moments email to confirm which school you are benefiting.

A subscription to Banana Moments: Family Business Quarterly

Informed and well-connected thought leadership based upon fieldwork and research

- The law and parenting
- Texting
- Social media (Facebook) and Cyber bullying
- Video games
- Sex and pornography
- Financial literacy
- Life lessons from legendary athletes like Dan Buz
- When drug culture meets the network culture
- Overcoming blind spots about our children
- Legislation impacting family decisions
- Emotional intelligence, faith and forgiveness

*"We can't teach what Banana Moments provides our parents. It's a perfect partnership at the right time." – Principal Kelly Graham, Olympus Junior High School, Roseville, CA

*"This publication offers insightful, relevant and practical information to help parents reinforce their leadership role for children today who are dealing with many mixed signals in society." ---- Mike McGuire, Principal Granite Bay High School, Granite Bay, CA